The subscriber will attend at his office every day in the week except Sunday, from 7 o'clock until 10 in the morning, for the purpose of receiving them.

Fifty Dollars Reward.

RAN away on the 28th of April, from the farm of the subscriber, in Dogue Neck, Fairfax Co. Virginia, negro HARRY, aged about twenty three years, about five feet ten inches high, very black, well built, has a considerable impediment in his speech, when spoken to evinces much confusion, and replies almost unintelligibly: had on when he left home, a much worn suit of domestic cloth. I have every reason to believe that he is endeavoring to pass for a free man, and as such went off in some of the bay craft during the late fishing season. All masters of vessels are forewarned from harboring or taking into their employ said negro, under penalty of having the law rigidly enforced against them. I will give twenty dollars, if taken in the county of Fairfax, or district of Columbia; if beyond that distance, the above reward, provided he is secured in jail so that I get him again. PURCHASED BY Oct 4 LAWRASON & FOWLE.

Mr. Editor,

KNOWING that there is a number of the most worthless of society, who make it a business to spread evil reports respecting the solvency of banks in the different parts of the United States, for the purpose of depreciating and purchasing their paper. I feel it is my duty to give a list of the Banks of the District of Columbia, that it may be made known to all persons in every part of the Union, that the said Banks do pay specie for their notes, on demand, and that they are justly entitled to the highest credit and standing, and that they are opposed to a suspension of specie payments, and will be the last in the country that will agree to such a measure. This communication is made to prevent imposition, and to inform all persons who may have the paper of those banks, in any part of the Union, that they may hold it as so much specie. Persons emigrating and travelling north, south or west, would do well by taking the notes of those banks, as they will always find them equal to specie, and often to command a premium of 5 to 10 per cent, for remittances to Baltimore, Philadelphia & New-York. To my numerous acquaintances (trading men,) and the community, I pledge myself for the foregoing.

The following are the banks of this district that pay specie for their notes on demand, viz:

The Farmers' and Mechanics' Bank of Georgetown,
Central Bank of Georgetown & Washington,
Union Bank of Georgetown.
Bank of Columbia,
Bank of the Metropolis,
Patriotic Bank of Washington,
Bank of Washington,
Bank of Alexandria,
Union Bank of Alexandria,
Farmers' Bank of Alexandria,
Bank of Potomac,
Branch Bank of the United States at Washington.

I hold myself responsible for the foregoing declaration to the public. Done at my Exchange Banking House, Bridge-street, Georgetown, this 26th day of May, 1819.

Editors of newspapers throughout the United States, by giving the above a few insertions, will greatly benefit the community. R. R.

WEDNESDAY, JUNE 23, 1819.

From the N. York Com. Adv. June 19.

LATEST FROM BOMBAY.

To the polite attention of Captain Robbinson, of the ship Tea Plant, which arrived this morning, we are indebted for the following memorandum, and for a file of the Bombay Gazette to the 24th of February :—

"May 7th, at 6 A. M. saw the Island of St. Helena, bearing N W. distant 11 leagues, light trades and cloudy. At 10, saw two sail on our larboard beam, bearing S. W.; at noon made one out to be a man of war, under all sail, in chace of us. At 2 P. M. she dropped nearly in our wake, distant about three miles. At 3, saw another man of war to leeward, standing off from the land. At 4, abreast of Jamestown, distant 3 miles, saw a 74 gun ship, a frigate, and a sloop of war at anchor; also several merchantmen. The man of war ahead now stood in for the island; saw another man of war off the N. W. part of the island. At 5, the ship in chase commenced firing when she found the ships ahead let us pass; it was presumed the men of war to leeward supposed we had been boarded by the ships on the weather station. The ship under the island now made all sail in chace, but the other outsailing her, she soon hauled her wind again, the breeze now refreshing, found we dropped the chase fast. At 7, they were hull down, though continued firing until 8.—At 10, lost sight of the chase, fresh trade winds, and clear pleasant weather.

"The day after we passed the island, came up, and spoke the English East India Company's ship Lady Banks, from Bengal, the Cape, and St. Helena, who had left the island the morning of the day we passed it; informed us Bonaparte was in good health, but continued in his old sulky mood. and kept himself quite shut up.

"The Tea Plant has performed her voyage to India and back in 8 months, which, I believe, is unprecedented for dispatch. Sailed from New-York on the 18th October, arrived at the same port on the 18th June."

Letters from several parts of India speak of the severe weather which was experienced in that quarter during the month of January. At Purneah, on the 24th of Jan. the ground was covered with hoar frost. At Juanpore on the 17th, the thermometer stood at 33. The letters add, that the Indigo has suffered much from the severity of the season. A letter from Sheergatty, mentions that on the 17th, 18th, and 19th of the same month, the thermometer was at 28, and that they had ice a quarter of an inch thick. All the crops were ruined.

Appa Sail had been seen near Asseerghur. It was believed that he intended to gain that town. Ranee has been taken by assault, by the force under the command of Sir Wm. G. Keir.

The Bombay Gazette of Feb. 24, says "William Duane, formerly editor of a paper in Bengal, is now making a conspicuous figure in America, a la mode de Cobbett."

Calcutta, Jan. 20.—Arrived, the Am. ship Essex, jun. Hinman, from Madeira.—Off Calcutta, the Rosanna and Duar, both American.

From the same.

LATE FROM ENGLAND.

The ship Canton, Captain Rogers arrived last evening, in 32 days from Liverpool. By this arrival we have received from our correspondent, London papers to the 13th of May, Lloyd's Shipping and Commercial List to the 11th. New Price Current to the 11th, and Liverpool papers to the 15th inclusive.

American Stocks, on the 8th of May, 3 per cents, 62¼; new 6 per cents, 97 a 99½ U. S. Bank Shares £24 a 25.

British Stocks, on the 13th, 3 per cent red. 71 a 70⅞; 3 per cent. consols 71 5-8; 4 do. 89⅞; consols for account 71 5-8.

French Funds, on the 9th of May, 5 per cents, 66f. 25c. Bank Stock, 1500f.

The Hector, Captain Gillender, from this port, arrived at Liverpool, in 18 days. She was off Cork in 14 days from the time she left the Highlands. We have seen a letter from Liverpool, which says, "this town is in an uproar, by the arrival of the Hector; she has brought answers to letters that were sent out by the Triton, to Boston, which vessel has been absent only 38 days."

In the house of lords, on the 11th of May there was an interesting debate, on the motion offered by the Marquis of Lansdowne, for information respecting the cession of the Floridas and the execution of Arbuthnot and Ambrister. A sketch of this debate our readers will find in a subsequent column. The editor of the "British States-man," in noticing that part of the debate which relates to Arbuthnot and Ambrister, says, "with respect to the execution of our unfortunate countrymen, no satisfaction will now, it is plain, be ever received. Our own ministers have become the defenders of General Jackson. They abuse his cruelty, but contend, that as far as we are concerned he had the right of acting as he has done. If he has sinned, it is only against his own government. With such principles we shall not long retain that proud eminence which has been so loudly extolled, and which we have purchased with so many sacrifices. The dignity of our character is gone, and insults will not fail to be lavished on those who bear them with impunity."

A London paper of the 12th of May says, that a report is in circulation, that a frigate has been dispatched to the United States, to bring back our Ambassador, a rupture having taken place between the two governments on account of the depredations committed by American privateers upon our trade, for which no satisfaction could be obtained. The quarter from which we have received this intelligence induces us to attach some credit to the statement.—Thus are the consequences of the possession of the Floridas by the Americans beginning to reveal themselves! for we understand it was in that quarter the depredations complained of were committed."

As to this London rumour, it is scarcely necessary to remark, that, so far as relates to the rupture between the two countries and the assigned cause of rupture, it is totally groundless. The Floridas are not yet in the possession of the United States, nor is there a privateer wearing our flag or clothed with the authority of our government, now floating on the ocean. If there are any armed vessels afloat, owned by American citizens, and sailing under foreign colors, they are in every sense of the word pirates, and ought to be treated as such both at home and abroad.

The Hecla and Griper, have sailed from England on a voyage of discovery to the Arctic regions. The London papers announce, "that in addition to this expedition, another is about to be undertaken by land, which is to proceed in a northern direction from the Hudson Bay Company's settlements. The persons to be employed in this arduous undertaking are selected; and, from the assistance of the North American tribes, every prospect of success is entertained. It will be recollected that many years ago, Mr. Herne, and more recently Mr. M'Kenzie, fell in with the sea at two intermediate points, a considerable distance from each other, between Behring's straits and Baffin's bay.

At Stockholm, three large commercial houses have suspended payment.

On the 27th of April the extensive house of Pauli, at Lubeck, failed, and on the 28th, that of M. G. H. Printz, jun. of Hamburgh. The latter for the sum of 337,169 marks banco.

Accounts from Brussels of May 5th say, "the duty proposed to be laid on coffee, excites great interest among the merchants. The first project laid before the chamber, consisted only of seven articles. The various objections of the central sections, on the mode of levying the duty, and on its amount have caused the project to be entirely altered, both with respect to coffee and sugar.

"To this new project, in 45 articles were added some explanatory remarks. This new project, after a preliminary examination, gave occasion to fresh conferences with the director general; upon which a third project has been presented, with the change of some articles and the addition of others. This new project was discussed in the sitting of the second chamber of the states general on the 6th May. The debate was very animated, and many distinguished members spoke at great length, but several others being still desirous of delivering their opinions, the chamber adjourned to the evening of the 6th."

The Catholic question was postponed from the 6th to the 17th of May, in consequence of the indisposition of Lord Donoughmore.

The bank committee have made their report to the house of lords. Our limits for this day will not admit of its insertion. We shall embrace an early opportunity to give a sketch of it. In introducing the report, the editor of the Star observes, "It forms, with the minutes of evidence and appendix, a folio volume of 431 pages; and is substantially the same in the measures which it recommends for the gradual resumption of cash payments. Like that of the commons it establishes the fact, that the bank are competent to the resumption of cash payments, and able to cancel every claim that can come against them, if the government will once repay the debt they owe to the bank."

London, May 12.

THE FAIR CIRCASSIAN.

His excellency the Persian Ambassador, with great politeness, has acceded to the wishes of our female nobility and gentry. The fair Circassian may now be seen daily by those properly introduced. It is necessary to state that this foir curiosity receives some trifling present from every one admitted to her presence, and she is already highly gratified with a variety of pleasing ornaments to decorate her person.

AIR JACKET.

Yesterday afternoon, Mr. Charles Kendal made an experiment on the Thames of the efficacy of his air jacket, or life preserver, which completely succeeded. He went from the Southwark-bridge thro' London-bridge with great ease, and on to the London docks in twenty minutes, walking upright in the water he and his man all the way.

Court of Assizes of Bruxelles;

CONSPIRACY AGAINST THE EMPEROR ALEXANDER.

Sittings of the 20th April, 1819.

In the sittings of yesterday was read the act of accusation, and the Deputy Attorney General communicated the particular facts from which he inteuded to prove the criminality of the accused. It is ascertained that the depositions of the witnesses were particularly grounded upon some conversations between the accused, before their arrest and from their mutual intimacy.

The charges are—to have fomented mistrust, seperations and quarrels amongst the citizens of the low countries—to have produced the disorder and revolt by an act contrary to good order, consisting in an act ultimately agreed upon between them in October, 1818, at Brussels; having in view to seize upon H. M. the Emperor of Russia, at the time of his travels in the low countries; to force H. M. to sign a proclamation to the French nation, to insist upon the return of Napoleon Bonaparte to France; to proclaim his son, Francis Charles Napoleon, emperor of the French nation, and Maria Louisia, the empress regent; to murder the emperor in case of his refusal to sign the proclamation; and if agreed upon, to take H. M. to some province of France, to facilitate by his presence, and by the promulgation of his proclamation to the French people, a revolt against the actual government—and to have, mutually and severally, been concerned in the full knowledge of all the circumstances leading to the said act against good order, and to be the chief promoters, by gifts, and promises, or by giving information how to proceed; and finally, by furnishing, knowingly, arms and other means necessary towards the execution of said plot.

By the 87th article of the Penal Law, capital punishment is fixed against any attempt or plot against the government; the heriditary succession to the crown; or against the chief of the kingdom; altho' by the 91st article, the main object of the conspiracy should be civil war, by arraying the citizens one against the other. We can find in the facts of the conspirators brought against the prisoner, nothing of the crimes denominated in the articles 87 and 91, of which we are more fully convinced considering how they are situated, and their case comes fully under the 1st art. of the royal decree, dated 20th April, 1815.

We submit the literal contents of the proclamation; it was drawn up by Piger, and afterwards copied by his associates.

PROCLAMATION TO THE FRENCH.

In the name of the nation and the Emperor Alexander.

Art. 1. In conformity with our Congress of Aix-la-Chapelle, we proclaim the evacuation of the army of Occupation in the last days of this month, and the return of every one to their frontiers.

Art. 2. From the secret assembly of the Souverains, by deliberation of our congress, we proclaim, in the name of the French nation, the return of Napoleon to France; that his son, Francis Charles Napoleon, be proclaimed Emperor of the French, and Maria Louisa, the imperatix regent.

Done in our congress of Aix-la-Chapelle, of our assembly the ——— 1818.

Some of the accused seem to have adopted a system of defence entirely contradictory, and are criminating one another.

Bruxelles, April 28.

Before the court of assizes; was continued, this day, the trial of the conspirators against H M. the Emperor. The sittings of yesterday were entirely devoted to the hearing of M. the Chevalier de Kniff, one of the municipality and chief of Police. This day, at the opening of the court, he has continued his report. Many of the witnesses have been brought from the prison before the court to give their testimony; afterwards the accused were interrogated; and to-morrow the public pleadings commence.

Extract of a letter from a gentleman in Huron, (Ohio) to the post-master in Jersey city, dated May 28, 1819.

"We have had the most interesting session of common pleas court which ever this county experienced. On the 26th April information was received that two inhabitants of our county, viz. John Wood and George Bishop, had been massacred by the Indians, while lying asleep in their camps, ten miles up Carrying river, where they had proceeded for the purpose of procuring fur. The information was brought by some friendly Indians of the Seneca tribe, to the white inhabitants living at the mouth of said river, when lieutenant Chas. C. Tupper, a smart, enterprising young man, together with three white men, and four friendly Indians, in company, pursued the supposed murderers, and overtook them at the mouth of Detroit river. They were three young Indians, of the Tawary tribe which left this county at the commencement of the late war, and took refuge with the British. They were examined, and, having confessed the perpetration of the horrid act, were committed, to await their awful fate.

"As there was no jail in the county, I hand-cuffed them, and chained them to the bottom log of a log-house, which I procured for their reception, and hired two men to guard them night and day. After being in this situation about a week, thro' a fatal neglect in the guard, they broke loose at night, and got away. The guard fired upon them, and then alarmed the inhabitants as soon as possible. Information was immediately sent me, distance 5 miles, when I immediately alarmed the whole country around, by sending expresses in every direction. After a fruitless search of two days and two nights, they were given up for lost. I then offered a reward of 300 dollars for them, and dispatched two men to lieutenant Tupper, who immediately went to the tribe, and having found that 2 had been there, he demanded them. The chiefs, having held a council, at first refused giving them up. They were then informed by lieut. Tupper, that, should they not deliver them to him in two days, the whole tribe would be extirpated. They complied with his demand, and he again brought them to me, after having been gone eight days. The other was found on the prairie, about 15 miles from here, having his hands still confined, and the chain on his leg. On examining him, it was found that the guard had shot him in his right shoulder and right leg, and that he had lived without food for seven days, except roots which he had dug. They were all again safely lodged, the first day of the court, and the grand jury having found a bill against them, and they having consented to be tried at this term, the two oldest were arraigned on the third day; and, having had counsel assigned them, and hearing the indictment read, (which was interpreted to them by a sworn interpreter) they plead not guilty. A jury was called and sworn. After some argument by the prosecuting attorney and other counsel, the court gave a very able and learned charge to the jury, who brought in a virdict of guilty of murder, after an absence of about half an hour. The sentence of death was pronounced on them by the court, which when interpreted to them, seemed to take away their reason. They however, requested the interpreter to intercede with the judge to give them forty nights, that they might send word to their chiefs. They are to be executed on the first day of July next.

"The other was a boy of 16 years old, and the testimony not being strong against him, he was acquitted, to the satisfaction of all present. The court house was over flowing, and it was with difficulty I could guard the prisoners from being crushed by the mob."

Charleston, June 15.

JUSTICE ENLIGHTENED BY STARVATION.

In a civil suit now pending in this city, the jury retired to make up their verdict on Saturday evening, at 7 o'clock. They are still confined, having remained already a period of near seventy hours. The problem is about to be solved, what connexion exists between a man's stomach and his opinions. This process is certainly calculated to make the body lean, if not the understanding. We expect to see some of these gentlemen reduced to the circumference of Shakespeare's Apothecary. Their diet is that of the Hermit in Goldsmith, so far as relates to the "water from the spring," but without the "herbs and fruits." We cannot sufficiently admire such praiseworthy abstemiousness. It reminds us of the fortitude and perseverance of the famous captain Riley, who saw himself gradually diminish from 250 to 60 pounds; and yet kept up his spirits again until the 60 pounds grew up again to the 250.

But, joking apart; should any of these jurors die of famine, produced by an absurd requisition of the common law, what cognizance should be taken of this judicial murder? A sheriff would be hung, who should starve even a felon!—But a poor juryman, it seems, if he is not talked may be starved to death at pleasure. Judges frequently hesitate in the formation of their opinions even for months after trial but who ever heard of the proposal to imprison or starve a judge until he decided a cause? Judges too, are allowed to differ, and the majority governs with them. But jurymen are neither permitted to differ nor to hesitate. It is a mean, contemptible appeal to a man, to address his mind and conscience through the medium of his stomach; it is one of the barbarous relics of antiquity, and should be scouted from our jurisprudence. Which of us could be compelled, through fear of starvation, to do even an indifferent act? And is it believed that independence of opinion and feeling on important subjects, are to be thus sacrificed. What is the value of an opinion extorted from the fainting and exhausted energies of nature? W.

Gunston for Sale.

THIS elegant estate is situated on the Potomac, 16 miles below Alexandria—it is bounded on three sides by the Potomac and Pohick creek, and contains nearly 3,000 acres of land, level and fertile, to which are attached six shad and herring fisheries, two of which command the river channel. This land will be laid off in four tracts, so as to have one or more fisheries to each; these tracts will be again divided if requisite. This estate is level and beautifully situated, very fertile, and remarkably healthy. Plaister acts with an effect equal to that of any part of Virginia or Pennsylvania.—I have used 500 bushels in twelve months, and such is its beneficial operation, that were I to keep this land I should considerably increase the quantity. A manufacturing mill is distant about two miles, on a stream navigable for vessels carrying 1200 bushels of wheat, where the Baltimore and Dist. of Columbia prices are given for grain: being bounded on 3 sides by water, a small extent only of fence is necessary to inclose the whole: it would be admirably adapted to grazing. The improvements are a large and very substantial brick mansion, 40 by 70 feet, with every necessary outhouse, three commodious barns, houses for Negroes, and fish houses at each of the fisheries. 120,000 bricks and 1000 bushels of lime are just burnt on the premises. There is a considerable extent of live fence, both useful and ornamental, two orchards of well selected apples and peach, besides an abundance of other choice fruit. More than 150 acres are in clover, 200 in corn, and land is in preparation for sowing 250 bushels of small grain. Any quantity of hay can be cut from the low grounds, some of which (and all might,) have been reclaimed at a trifling expense. The river and creeks, abound with wild fowl, particularly canvass backs, the woods with deer and a variety of other game. Mules, cattle, highly improved sheep, farming utensils and household furniture can be had. The terms of sale will be accommodating. Property in any of the cities, negroes, bank stock, western lands, or lands near the Ridge, will be taken in payment.—Letters must be addressed to me at Pohick Church, Fairfax county, Virginia.

September 4 GEORGE MASON.

Valuable Property for Sale.

THE subscriber is desirious of selling a handsomely situated farm, on Hunting creek, in Fairfax county Virginia, adjoining the Mount Vernon estate and the lands of general Thomson Mason, four miles from Alexandria, containing about 240 acres, 80 of which are in wood—10 to 30 in thriving meadow of clover and timothy—a part of the residue recently seeded with wheat and rye, and clover, last spring—the whole enclosed with a new post and rail fence.—The improvements are, a comfortable and convenient frame dwelling house and kitchen, smoke house, poultry house, granary and stables.—There is on this place a rich and productive garden, and a large body of marsh meadow, from which may be saved annually 100 tons of hay, nearly as nutricious as the best timothy or clover.—With the farm would be sold a number of very valuable horses, cows and sheep; waggon, carts, and a variety of farming utensils and household and kitchen furniture; corn, oats and rye, and 40 tons hay. Also, adjoining the one above described, a farm containing 160 acres, recently enclosed, on which is a brick house, which a trifling expense would render comfortable. The soil is excellent, and a considerable part might be easily converted into meadow.—it would be sold with the other or separately. Also, a number of valuable servants, male and female. To prevent unnecessary application, he would observe, that they will only be sold to persons residing in the District or its vicinity, and not to be carried from it. The subscriber will also sell the greater part of his household furniture, which is new and handsome. For terms of all or any part of the above property, apply to NOBLET HERBERT, esq. or

S. Drew, Merchant Tailor,

Removed from Fairfax-street to the corner of King and Columbus streets, and his prices falling

RESPECTFULLY acquaints his customers and the citizens in general that he has removed as above, where he will study to give satisfaction. He has by him a small but well assorted stock of goods, which will be found on inspection to be of the best quality, the whole of which he wishes to sell low for cash, and as further inducements to purchasers he offers to cut out any goods, bought of him to any size or pattern gratis.

S. Drew aware, of the advantage a ready money business has over one where long credit is given, thinks that a distinction ought to be made in the prices in each case: and as the price of provisions are low at present, he is glad to be able to announce to those customers who will feel disposed to pay him ready money for his work, that he will reduce the price of making to them according to the present journeymen's wages; and to prevent any supposed imposition on the one hand or disatisfaction on the other he is willing to be governed by the printed regulations of prices by which the journeymen are paid in Alexandria.

N. B. Bread, flour, beef, groceries, liquors or any thing valuable taken in exchange for clothes.

S. Drew has this day opened a tavern in the same house, where he has laid in a a supply of Philadelphia and the district porter and ale, together with liquors of the best quality, and he feels confident that he shall be able to give satisfaction to all who will please to favor him with a call.—He is fitting up his house for the accommodation of boarders, travellers, &c. and from its central situation, good beds and stabling, together with other requisites, he presumes that it will be found a convenient establishment. may 25

100 Dollars Reward.

IS known to have been kidnapped from a field near Germantown, between the hours of 12 and 2 o'clock, on the 30th ult. whilst at work alone, a Free Black Man, named HENRY HUDSON, aged between 21 and 22 years, of the height of five feet five inches, very black complexion and dark eyes, has a scar under his left arm, between the wrist and elbow, occasioned by the cut of an axe.

He is by occupation a farmer, a native of Kent county, in the state of Delaware, had on a blue cloth roundabout jacket, old black silk vest, corded velvet pantaloons, and a wool hat.

He is a very civil, inoffensive man, with rather a down look. There is reason to suppose that he was decoyed into a carriage, and conveyed southward.

Any information respecting him will be thankfully received. Keepers of turnpike gates, toll bridges, and taverns, are particularly requested to give such information as may be in their power.

The above reward will be cheerfully paid on conviction of the perpetrators of this flagrant outrage upon the rights of a freeborn citizen of the United States.

Exchange & Broker's Office,

Georgetown, District of Columbia.

ROMULUS RIGGS,

AT his office, next door below Crawford's tavern, Bridge-st Georgetown, will exchange all kinds of Bank Notes on the most reasonable terms.—All persons who may have notes on the banks of North Carolina, South Carolina and Georgia, would do well to call on him, as he is largely in the purchase of that kind of money, and will take it on the most reasonable terms.—Persons travelling to the Western Country may at all times get the Bank Notes of the Western Banks at a fair discount, by calling at his Office. For the information of all persons throughout the U. States, R. Riggs makes it known, that all of the Banks of the District of Columbia pay their notes on demand in specie; and it would be much to the advantage of the merchants, and trading to the South and west, to encourage the circulation of the Notes of the Banks of Georgetown, Washington and Alexandria, as it will at all times answer for remittances to the large commercial and Atlantic towns;—all persons emigrating or travelling to the westward should be very particular and take the Notes of the Banks of the District of Columbia, as they will find them the most current, there being no counterfeits on the District Banks. The Merchants' Bank of Alexandria has long since failed—all persons should be on their guard, as they will be imposed on. August 18

To Wheelwrights, Blacksmiths, Tanners, Harness-Makers, Saddlers, Hatters, &c.

BELIEVING as I do, that PROVIDENCE, at Fairfax Court-House, would be a suitable situation for mechanics of the above description, I offer to such, lots in that village for sale, on ground rent for ever—will build and furnish suitable houses and rent to them, or furnish brick to them to build with; and invite any who feel disposed to settle there, for the purpose of carrying on their respective trades to advantage, to come and view the situation. It is a very public place, the centre of the county, where the superior and county courts are held. The Little River Turnpike Road passes through this little town from Alexandria westward, and where all the public meetings for the county, &c. are held; and where trades of the aforesaid description being carried on, would meet with great encouragement, and be a public convenience to the country around. No situation can be more healthy—good water, and fire wood cheap. Mechanics of the above description must generally depend on the country people, farmers, &c. to be their customers. Here they would be in a convenient situation for all the purposes. I invite a call, and view for themselves. I would also furnish lots adjacent, from one to five acres each, for cultivation, pasture, &c. on moderate terms; all of which can be shown, and terms made known, on application to RICH'D. RATCLIFFE, Fairfax Court-House, Va.

GENTLEMEN, Your favor of the 2d inst. is at hand, wherein you offer me an opportunity, through the medium of your paper, to reply to an anonymous publication of the 31st ultimo, for which you will please to accept my thanks.
